DEATHS.

Mr. Thomas E. Jasper, 69 years old, a former resident of this city, died last Saturday morning at North Wilkesboro, N. C. The remains were brought to this city and the funeral will take place from Lee Camp Hall, on Prince street, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and will be attended by the members of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans, of which the deceased had been a member. The services will be conducted by Rev. W. F. Watson and the pallbearers will be Messrs. Charles S. Taylor, Booker Hall, J. B. Spicer, G. W. Ramsay, Edgar Warfield and P. F. Gorman.

Mrs. Ada Kane, wife of Mr. Levi Kane, died yesterday at the Alexandria Hospital. The deceased was about 40 years old.

Mrs. Mary Ratcliffe, wife of the late James Harvey McVeigh, Jr., of Alexandria, died September 8 at Kansas City, Mo. She was the daughter of the late Judge Daniel Ratcliffe and Mary Boshier Ratcliffe, of Richmond. George McGee, who on last Monday was sent from the hospital to the city almshouse, died at that institution yesterday evening at 3 o'clock from consumption from which he had long been a sufferer. He was 89 years old, and a native of northern Scotland and had worked in the stone yard in this city. He had no relatives in this country. His body was turned over to Mr. Wheatley, the undertaker, from whose establishment he will be buried.

Morton Grigsby, colored, died at his home, 708 north Henry street, on Saturday.

ANOTHER ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

Mr. J. W. Riley, of this city, has received the following from the visiting firemen he entertained at his hospitable firemen's convention in this city last month.

Newport News, Va., Sept. 3, 1910.

Mr. J. W. Riley,
Dear Sir:—In behalf of the Eagle Engine Company, No. 3, of Newport News, we wish to express our appreciation for the courtesy shown our company while on a short visit to your city at the firemen's convention, and furthermore the company stands ever ready to meet your slightest wish and to make efforts to create opportunities to give you pleasure, and it is the earnest desire of the company that the present relations between you and the boys of No. 3 will continue and if you should ever come to Newport News do not fail to pay us a visit.

Hoping this will find you in the best of health I beg to remain

Respectfully yours,
SAMUEL H. WHEATCROFT,
Rec. Sec. Eagle Engine Co., No. 3.

GREAT COUNCIL OF RED MEN.

W. S. Nicklin, Great Prophet of the Improved Order of Red Men of Virginia, left yesterday for Toledo, Ohio, to attend the 63rd annual session of the Great Council of the United States which convenes in that city today. Mr. Nicklin is one of eight representatives from Virginia to the convention; and among other resolutions of importance to the order, that this delegation will offer will be a bill, endorsing the Indian statue bill which was introduced in the House of Representatives by Mr. Goulden of New York, Jan. 1910 and which is expected to become a law at the next session of Congress. The purpose of the bill is to have erected in the harbor of New York a suitable memorial to the memory of the North American Indian.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Charles E. Dove took place this afternoon from the residence, 448 south Lee street. The services were conducted by Rev. John Canvaugh, and the pallbearers were Messrs. Moses Hayden, Frank Smith, Otis Dodson, Nathaniel Dodson, Charles Travers and Robert Dove. The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie Lee Swan, widow of W. D. Swan and mother of Messrs. C. B. and Wm. B. Swan, of this city, who died in Washington on Friday last, took place this afternoon from her late home.

FINED TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS.

Julius Slaughter, colored, was arrested Saturday night by Officers Rawlett and Talbot charged with drawing a pistol on Ernest McBride, colored. The trouble took place in the north-eastern section of the city over a woman. Slaughter was brought before the Police Court this morning and fined $25. Mr. Robinson Moncreux was counsel for the accused.

BIG SHOW.

As will be seen by the advertisement of the new Opera House, a refined entertainment is in store for all who attend the first three nights of this week. The management has spared neither time nor expense in order to get something good and the vaudeville feature for tonight and until Wednesday cannot be surpassed. The pictures also are exceptionally good. The new manager who takes charge tonight is a man of much experience in the theatrical world and the people may expect good things of him. A new feature will be added allowing competition among local talent as is the case in the larger cities.

MEETINGS.

The regular monthly meeting of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce will be held tonight.
The regular monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association will be held tomorrow night.

Shoes less than half price—200 pairs Misses' Shoes that cost to manufacture $1.50 and $1.75, and sold at $2.00 and $2.50, will be sacrificed at 98c per pair. John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

A. A. C. WINS SECOND GAME

Zachary's Wildness and Burrell's Superb Pitching Cause the Downfall of the Cardinals A. C.

The second game for the championship of Alexandria between the Alexandria Athletic Club and the Cardinal Athletic Club was played on the north Alfred street grounds Saturday afternoon and was witnessed by a vast crowd of baseball enthusiasts, including many ladies, and, as was predicted in the account of the first game, when the Cardinals won, "that the A. A.'s would prove dangerous rivals in the future games" proved true in every respect, and they defeated that strong team by the score of 13 to 3.

The Alexandrians were the first at bat and were retired in quick order by Zachary who proved to be a wizard by his speedy and puzzling curves that baffled his opponents. In the Cardinals first turn at bat Hayden scored and the side was retired. The A. A.'s in the second inning scored their first run by O'Brien. In the Cardinals half Murphy scored, putting his team in the lead. The third inning the A. A.'s failed to score, but Astyrke for the Cardinals, with a powerful rap, knocked the ball to deep left field, and by swift running gained a home run.

The Cardinals after the fourth inning failed to score as they were unable to hit Burrell because of his great speed and magnificent control of the ball, and thereafter it was "they walked right in, walked around, then walked right out again."

Williams commenced the trouble in the sixth inning by knocking one of his pet grasshoppers, one of the most difficult hits, to the field and scored thereby. In the seventh inning Burrell, Lynch and Hicks scored, giving their team a lead that was sure to win the game. Three men were on the bases when Schrivener came to bat in the eighth inning and he hit the ball square on the nose so hard that it went flying at great speed to left field and caused a general "home coming" of the men on bases and he scored a home run. The ending of the ninth inning gave them a total of 13 runs—not so bad after all for an afternoon's sport.

The pitching by Burrell was simply great, and he deserves much praise for his wonderful work in the box, but his unnecessary hard stab at Zachary in running him down to first base was the cause of much criticism by the spectators. "Bird" Treary during his time in the box had a similar play as that made by Burrell and demonstrated that it is as easy to strike a player lightly as it is to strike him by great force. The public is anxious to see the best team win, and it is to be hoped that in the future both teams will avoid all unnecessary roughness during the game.

Space will not permit of individual mention, but the earnest work of all members of both teams in Saturday's contest was of a high-class order and no one need be ashamed of his performance.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:
James Whitney, colored, charged with improper conduct on the streets, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Mamie Wayne, colored, charged with vagrancy, was dismissed upon promising to leave the city.

James Slaughter, charged with assaulting Ernest McBride, colored with a pistol was fined $25.

A white man, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Nellie Dudley, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, forfeited her collateral by failing to appear.

Irene Price, colored, charged with similar offences, was fined $5.

James Miller, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

A white man, charged with larceny of tools from the Southern Railway Company, had his case turned over to the authorities of Alexandria county. He was fined $10 by Justice Burrell.

Elijah Taylor, colored, charged with disorderly conduct on an electric train, was turned over to the authorities of Alexandria county.

Estelle Lee, colored, suspected of stealing jewelry, was dismissed for want of evidence.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE CITY.

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]

P. T. Harrington vs. City Council; a suit to recover damages for the death of a horse which fell into a ditch; demurrer to allegation on part of city overruled; plea of not guilty entered and case continued till third day of the November term and jury ordered summoned from Fairfax county.

Jennie Kramer vs. Harry Kramer; dismissed on account of death of complainant.

Clara M. W. Abbott vs. George M. Abbott; final decree for divorce on statutory ground and granting custody of infant daughter to plaintiff, who is allowed alimony of $75 per month.

W. T. Dent was appointed administrator of the estate of Edward W. Dent, deceased.

Wm. Flippings, by his next friend, Samuel Flippings, vs. Adams Express Co.; suit for $500 damages for personal injuries; compromise verdict for $125.

Lamar Monroe vs. the Rosemont Development Company; case continued. This suit is to recover $8,000 damages for injuries received November 30, 1909, in a runaway accident. The plaintiff, who is a rural free delivery mail carrier, alleges that the blowing of a whistle on a steam roller frightened his horse, which ran away, throwing him out and injuring him.

Court adjourned for the term.

In chambers, Judge Thornton in the Circuit Court for the county heard arguments on the demurrer in the case of Groves vs. Washington-Southern Railway Company.

At a well attended meeting of the alumnae of St. Mary's Academy yesterday afternoon arrangements for the annual banquet, which will be held at that institution October 19 next, were made.

Listen, did you ever have a "hunch" that you weren't given a chance for your "white alley"? Did it ever occur to you that your own particular "star" was when in the ascendant? Mister Man, whenever you begin to feel as if the Creator had made a mistake when he created your particular species, just take an extra grip on the band wagon and come to Blondheim's Auth Stand or Market for those irresistibly delicious Auth Sausages and Food Products—They'll knock that "dopey" feeling out of your "makeup" in a jiffy.

WILLS PROBATED.

In the clerk's office of the Circuit Court today the will of the late Julius Dreifus was admitted to probate. The deceased sets forth that as three years ago he gave to his sons Joseph and Albert Dreifus one-third each interest in his business, he makes no provision for them. He now gives to his son Lewis the other third interest which includes stock, merchandise, horses, wagons, &c. To his wife, Hedwig Dreifus, he leaves the house and lot at the southeast corner of Payne and Commerce street, and $2,000. The house next adjoining the above on Payne street he leaves to his daughter, Henrietta, and the house next adjoining to his son, Louis J. Dreifus. The custody, tuition and guardianship of Henrietta and Louis J. he leaves to his wife. To his daughters, Bena and Carrie, he leaves his household goods and chattels in the residence, No. 120 south Payne street, except the safe and contents, which he leaves to his son, Albert. He leaves to his children, Samuel, Bertha, Nettie, Frank, Leopold, Fannie, Bena and Carrie $500 each and the proceeds of his insurance policies. The amount of his policy in the Royal Arcanum he leaves to his wife and eleven children. He appoints his sons, Albert and Joseph, his executors and requires no bond or security and demands that no appraisal be made of his estate, which is valued at $12,000.

An authenticated copy of the will of the late Charles N. Crittenton, of New York, was admitted to probate in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court for the city today and Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett qualified as one of the executors.

POSTOFFICE NAME CHANGED.

After October 1 the postoffice at Quantico, Prince William county, known for many years as Potomac, will be named Quantico, according to an order just issued by the Post-office Department. This action is taken to avoid confusion with the town of Potomac, Alexandria county, recently incorporated.

THE SCHOOLS.

The public schools of the city reopened this morning under the most favorable auspices and hundreds of children were seen during the day winding their way to the different school buildings to resume their studies after a long vacation. The buildings have all been put in good condition, many improvements having been made during the recess, and it is believed that another successful year will be added to the school record.

CHARTER EXTENDED.

As will be seen by an advertisement in another column, the charter of the Citizens' National Bank, which was incorporated forty years ago has been extended for another twenty years, and its many friends of the bank hope it will go on forever. The Citizens' Bank is one of Alexandria's most prosperous institutions and the officers and directors are all prominent and energetic business men and all alive to the city's interests.
